FRIDAY EVENING, DEC. 1, 1882.

LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES, Dec. 1, 1882. For the Middle Atlantic States, warmer, fair weather, except in northerly portion light snow, westerly winds, stationary or lower pressure.

THE CANAL SHOOTING AFFAIR.—As stated in yesterday's GAZETTE, Denison Shupp, captain, and Joseph Summers, (colored), steersman of the canal boat M. A. Shupp, had been arrested in Cumberland, charged with shooting Captain Henry Arnold, of the American boat Weyand Doerner, near Paw Paw, Tuesday morning. The two men had a hearing at Cumberland yesterday, the result being that Shupp was discharged from custody and required to give bail as a witness, and Summers, the colored steersman, was recommended to await the result of Arnold's injuries. The Cumberland News in its account of the affair says: "The facts as developed from the testimony of Shupp and David A. Wolfer the stable boy on Shupp's boat, are as follows: Shupp's boat was coming up light and Arnold's going down loaded. They met near canal tunnel. Shupp was steering, Wolfe was in the stable and Summers was in the cabin. As Arnold's boat approached he was seen steering, and Summers remarked to Shupp that he was going to shoot him (Arnold). Shupp tried to dissuade him from doing so, but when Arnold's boat had gotten up to and was passing Shupp's, Summers shouted to Arnold: 'Are you ready for the now?' Arnold replied rather roughly, telling the boys that he wished to have nothing to do with him. Summers then fired on the widow with an old army musket, loaded with shot, the charge taking effect in Arnold's arm and leg. After the shooting Arnold's boat kept on down the canal. When last heard from he was reported in a dangerous condition. He is about 35 years old and said to be generally quiet and peaceable. His wife is on the boat with him and they are trying to take him home to Alexandria. The trouble between Arnold and Summers is said to have originated several trips back, when the former accused the latter of stealing a tow-line. Arnold is well known in this city, having lived here for some years. He is a very light mulatto and is frequently taken for a white man. He is a member of several colored societies of this city and has been employed by the American Coal Co. for some time. His boat is expected here daily.

THE OYSTER TRADE.—The Cambridge, Md., News says that the number of bay and river vessels now in the oyster trade for exports that of any previous season. "On almost any good day a person standing at the mouth of the Choptank river can count from 75 to 100 ships in the river and bay. Oysters are reported scarce, and of course violations of the law are constantly going on; in fact, the vessels oyster in the mouth of the Little Choptank with almost as much impunity as anywhere else, although it is against the law. When a police boat is seen approaching the captain nearest the enemy drops his peak, which is the universal signal among oystermen while dredging in forbidden waters. The best part of the season is over by Christmas, the demand from the West falling off after the holidays." The supply of oysters both in this city, and Washington, has been equal to the demand up to this time and on several occasions exceeded it.

CLUE TO THE RECENT ROBBERIES.—Since the robberies which were committed in this city about two weeks ago, the police have been quietly but steadily working up the case and officer James Smith and readyman Wm. Grady have succeeded in getting such a clue to the house-breakers that if they don't bring them to justice, which they expect to do, they will at least recover most of the stolen property. Officer Smith has secured four of the silver spoons which Mrs. Roach, from whom they were stolen, has identified as her property, and readyman Grady, has in his possession some of the knives stolen on the same night. With these articles in hand and the place known in which they were found, to follow up the thieves will be a task which the officers say they will accomplish.

HANDSOME ROOMS.—The rooms of the Alexandria Club, over Stabler's drug store, have recently been remodeled, refitted, refurnished and made so cheerful and cozy that the mothers, wives and sweethearts of its members will have to make themselves and homes in an extra degree agreeable, or they will find that the attractions of the club will in no small degree interfere with their domestic relations. The second floor of the building has been transformed into one double room, the walls have been handsomely papered, the floors carpeted and the rooms so comfortably furnished that it is now really a pleasure to spend an evening there. The membership of the club is large and embraces many of the influential and business men of the city.

NOMINATION.—At a meeting of the democratic voters of the 4th ward held last night at the Friendship engine house, P. S. Leadbeater in the chair and J. C. Taliaferro, secretary, J. S. B. Thompson was nominated for the Common Council to fill the vacancy in the delegation from that ward occasioned by the resignation of Mr. J. S. Cowling. The names before the meeting were J. S. B. Thompson and Harris Freeman, and the voting resulted Thompson 22, Freeman 10. The election will be held tomorrow, and Mr. Thompson will receive the cordial support of the democrats of the ward.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.—The only troupe of South Carolina Jubilee Singers now traveling are engaged with Abbey's Double Mammoth Uncle Tom Co., and will be heard in a choice selection of songs, jubilees, plantation melodies and cottonfield refrains, at each and every performance of that combination. Two of the bloodhounds belonging to Abbey's Double Mammoth Uncle Tom's Cabin Co., which is to exhibit at Armory Hall on December 4th were recently imported by Manager Abbey, from Siberia, at a cost of nearly three hundred dollars each.

POLICE REPORT.—There were no arrests last night and but six lodgers at the station house, the regulars not appearing, as they had been warned that they would be locked up if they did. The only case before the Mayor this morning was that of Mary Compton and Geo. Brooks charged with fighting. Both parties were discharged with a reprimand.

MARRIAGE OF A MINISTER.—Rev. Rev. Dr. Estill, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, Portsmouth, and Miss Lou M. Christian, daughter of Prof. J. Heath Christian, of Henrico county, were married in Baltimore Tuesday. The ceremony was performed at Memorial Church by Rev. G. W. Dame. Mr. Estill is a brother-in-law of Capt. Herbert Bryant, of this city, and has many friends living here.

THE GARFIELD FAIR.—THE K. T. T. THE A. L. F. AND THE ST. J. A. C. CORPS.—As stated in the GAZETTE, Old Dominion Commandery, K. T. T. of this city yesterday attended the Garfield fair now being held in Washington and took part in the parade. The parade was commanded by Sir Knight Ed. Warfield, Captain General. They appeared in line with twenty-seven members and attracted considerable attention, and no small share of applause. They and their lady friends were handsomely entertained by the Washington Commanderies, at the National Hotel, and all who were present are loud in their praise of the hospitable and courteous manner in which they were received and of the attentions shown them. The banquet at the hotel was both sumptuous and elegant.

THE A. L. F., about forty strong, left this city on the 11:30 o'clock boat to-day for Washington to participate in the parade, and preceded by a fine band, marched to the wharf. They made a most creditable appearance and attracted a large crowd on the streets to see them. They were under the command of Capt. Geo. Mulbray and Lieut. Marbury, Monroe, and Bryan.

St. John's Cadet Corps of this city also formed part of the military procession in Washington to-day, and left here on the 10 o'clock train, commanded by Maj. Newby. Their soldierly bearing was commented on by the numbers who saw them off, and they will doubtless receive their full share of attention in Washington.

COLORADO MARRIAGE.—The cream of Philadelphia colored society gathered last evening to witness the nuptials of Mr. Charles Simpson and Mrs. Mary L. Harris, a widow from Alexandria. Colored circles have been greatly interested in the marriage, for, while the bridegroom is but 28 years of age, 32 summers and a like number of winters have rolled into history since the bridegroom's birth. The bride was dressed in white silk, with orange blossoms in her hair, and looked even younger than she was, while the radiant bridegroom seemed his own junior by a score of years at least. Later in the evening the happy pair held a reception at the residence of the bridegroom, where they received the congratulation of their many friends. This is Mr. Simpson's third matrimonial venture. He is a pleasant faced jolly old man full of spirits (animal, not of colic), with burnside whiskers as white as snow, and eyes that twinkle with fun. He was in the service of Stephen Girard in the capacity of body servant, which position he filled until the time of Mr. Girard's death, in 1830.—Philadelphia Record.

NIGRO SWINDLER.—A negro man has been going about the city for the last night or two representing to those he called on that he was the owner of a load of grain and oysters, which he said was lying in the river of the city. He succeeded in getting advances from several gentlemen on the promise to deliver the goods early in the morning. Of course he never delivered either grain or oysters, and the police are now on his track. It is said he was once a member of the Alexandria chain gang.

PERSONAL.—Miss Lula Garney, a pretty brunette, from Jacksonville, Fla., who has been visiting Mrs. John P. Robinson, of this city, returned to her home this morning. Miss G. is a bright and attractive young lady, and was the recipient of a great deal of attention by the young men of Alexandria, many of whom were at the train to see her off with sad and heavy hearts.

Rev. E. H. Cundston is boarding at the Reddock House.

THE GAZETTE.—In a letter from a friend in Culpeper he says: "My dear Sir.—I requested note for $500.00, to be placed to his subscription credit, and to say to you that so long as the GAZETTE continues to flourish, and he feels satisfied it will be so long as you will be forward it to him, and to his children, and to his great-grandchildren, and it will be a welcome visitor and paid for."

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—The December Teachers' Institute of the Alexandria Public Schools will be held at Peabody Hall at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning. The subject of Penmanship will be presented by Prof. E. B. Hay, of Washington, and others. All teachers and others interested in education are cordially welcome at the Institute.

LAUNCH OF THE NEW SCHOONER.—Should the tide permit, the new schooner on the stocks at the yard of the Potomac Manufacturing Company, will be launched between 12 and 1 o'clock to-morrow. The schooner will be rigged as soon as possible as everything for that purpose here, ready at hand.
